The Faithful Friar report: Father Jack Kelly talked about the parable of the mustard seed. He said we do not need to do great things, but it is the little acts of kinds we do for each that sometimes matter the most. We should all look to the family to reinvigorate the Church. It is the main mission of Pope Francis' visit to the United States later this year. Faithful Friar commented the K of C is one of the longest lasting Christian lay groups. Many of the Protestant lay groups such as Promise Keepers has gone by the way side.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were not read in lieu of them being sent out to the membership via email and posted on the Assembly Website. Past Faithful Navigator (PFN) John Handley moved to accept the minutes for the preceding meeting. PFN Paul Tomacelli made a second on the motion. APPROVED.
