REFLECTIONS FROM PRESIDENT CALVIN COOLIDGE

Christmas is not a time nor a season, but a state of mind. To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas.

Leadership consists of picking good men and helping them do their best.

Uncommon valor was a common virtue.

INNER SENTINEL

Sir Knight Chris Kendziera has resigned his office of Inner Sentinel due to job commitments. At our Assembly Planning Meeting held on 15 November 2015 the nominations process began to fill this Office. Sir Knight Dennis Cahill is the only nominee thus far. Anyone who wishes to fill this office nominations will be taken up the election at the Assembly Meeting scheduled for 17 January 2016.

DATES FOR CHRISTMAS AND EASTER

Sir Knight Christopher R. Cooper

Most Feast Days of the Catholic Church are celebrated on the same day each year. Christmas is one example. Why does the date for Christmas not move from year to year like Easter? The Church uses two different calendars to establish the dates for Christmas and Easter. (Rumble, 2014)

The date for Christmas is established by the Roman calendar. This calendar is based on a solar year; hence, the date stays the same from year to year. The date for Easter is based on the Jewish calendar. This calendar is based on the lunar cycle. Since the lunar cycle varies it makes the date for Easter change from year to year.

The use of two different calendars leads to another question. Why? The early Church Fathers wanted the death and resurrection of Christ our Savior to coincide with the Jewish celebration of the Passover. (Rumble, 2014) The two feasts mark the transition from the Old Testament to the New Testament. Passover marks the Jew's deliverance from oppression under the Egyptians in the Old Testament. The death and resurrection of Christ delivered us from the power of Satan and sin in the New Testament.

BAPTISM

Sir Knight Christopher R. Cooper

Baptism is the first sacrament all Catholics receive. Fortunately, we have witnessed several Baptisms in our Church community in the past month. The age of the newest members of our Catholic community ranges from infants to adults. The infants bring up a point of contention with our evangelical brethren. They do not believe in infant baptism. The sacrament of Baptism connects us with the Jewish tradition of circumcision. In most cases the sacrament of Baptism is administered by a bishop or a priest. In the Roman Church a deacon may perform a baptism. (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1994) First let's help out our evangelical brethren on the point of infant baptism.

Our evangelical brethren assert infants or small children under the age seven cannot be baptized because they have not reached the age of reason. (Catholic Answers, 2004) The New Testament does not state an age requirement when a person may receive the sacrament of Baptism. There are three examples in the New Testament of whole households receiving the sacrament of Baptism:

1. The first example is The Acts of the Apostles 16:15 when St. Paul, traveling with his companions, baptized Lydia and her household, "After she and her household had been baptized, she offered us an invitation, 'If you consider me a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my home,' and she prevailed on us." (The New American Bible - St. Joseph Edition, 1987)
2. The next example is The Acts of the Apostles 16:33. St. Paul baptized his jailor and the jailor's household, "And he, taking them the same hour of the night, washed their stripes: and himself was baptized, and all his house immediately." (The Holy Bible - Douay-Rheims Edition, 2005)
3. The last example is St. Paul's greeting in 1 Corinthians 1:16, "And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other." (The Holy Bible - King James Version, 1976)

These passages from three different sources do not state an age requirement. According to these passages all members of the households mentioned received the sacrament of Baptism.

Baptism connects us with the Catholic Church's roots in the Jewish tradition in this case circumcision. (Catholic Answers, 2004) In the Old Testament circumcision was the covenant between God and the Jewish people. Christ replaced circumcision with Baptism in the New Testament. St. Paul makes this point in Colossians chapter 2, "11. In him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not administered by hand, by stripping off the carnal body, with the circumcision of Christ. 12. You were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead." (The New American Bible - St. Joseph Edition, 1987)

In most cases members of the Clergy administer the sacrament of Baptism. There are two exceptions:

1. The first is in the case of necessity meaning an individual is facing immediate death and no clergyman is available. In this case anyone can administer the sacrament of Baptism. "The ordinary ministers of baptism are the bishop and priest and, in the Latin Church, also the deacon. In case of necessity, anyone, even a non-baptized person, with the required intention, can baptize by using the Trinitarian baptismal formula. The intention required is to will to do what the Church does when she baptizes. The Church finds the reason for this possibility in the universal saving will of God and the necessity of baptism for salvation." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1994)
2. The second exception is converts to the Catholic Church who are already baptized. "95. a) Baptism by immersion, or by pouring, together with the Trinitarian formula is, of itself, valid. Therefore, if the rituals, liturgical books or established customs of a Church or ecclesial Community prescribe either of these ways of baptism, the sacrament is to be considered valid unless there are serious reasons for doubting that the minister has observed the regulations of his/her own Community or Church.”

(Cassidy, 1993)

Hopefully, our parish will see more Baptism for the New Year 2015 A.D. It is a joyous occasion. Baptism is not restricted to adults or older children. All people of all ages are invited to receive this sacrament.
